the contractor shall be a mide to comply with such express condition, the Secretary of the Navy may waive such condition or take such other action as he may deem proper under the cir-Cumstances

Any, 8. The contractor is hereby granted the exclusive right, until the completion of the contruction of such vessels or until a determination is made by the Secretary of the Navy that the Facilities are no longer necessary for the National Defense, whichever shall be the last, to operate the Facilities as a part of the plant of the contractor without compensation for its services except as provided for herein or by other "greenest." During said period in which the contractor shall operate the Facilities, the contractor will, at its own expense, keep them insured against damage and provide all reasonable protection and maintain them in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted: Provided, however, That the foregoing provision shall not prevent the contractor from apportioning such expense as a part of the cost of performing other work at its said plant. The contractor shall, during the period of the construction of such vessels and during the national emergency declared by the President of the United States on September 8, 1939, to exist, give priority in the use of these Facilities for Department work on National Defense.

ART. 9. (a) This contract or any part thereof may at any time be suspended or cancelled by the Secretary of the Navy, with the effect as hereinafter prescribed.

(b) In case the construction and installation of the Facilities are suspended the contractor, upon receipt of written notice of such suspension, shall promptly stop all work in connection therewith, except as otherwise directed by the Secretary of the Navy and, during the period of such suspension, shall care for the Facilities and all materials and equipment on hand for the construction thereof. It shall also promptly furnish to the Secretary of the Navy copies of all outstanding orders for materials, equipment, and services and shall take such action relative to such orders as may be directed by the Secretary of the Navy. If such construction and installation is thus suspended, the contractor will be entitled to be reimbursed for all additional expense as determined by the Compensation Board incurred by reason of such suspension; this additional expense shall include (1) the cost of any special work directed by the Secretary of the Navy that would not have been necessary had the construction of the Facilities not been Suspended; (2) the cost of care and preservation of the Facilities, materials, and equipment during the period of suspension; (3) any additional payments for which the contractor is liable by reason of the suspension or cancellation of orders for material or work that may be directed by the Secretary of the Navy; (4) the increased cost, if any, due to the resumption of work after its suspension; (5) any other reasonable expense the contractor shall have incurred on account of the suspension.

(c) In case this contract is cancelled by the Secretary of the Navy, the contractor, upon receipt of written notice of such cancellation, shall immediately stop all work in connection with the construction of the Facilities provided for hereunder, except as otherwise directed by the Secretary of the Navy. If this contract is thus cancelled, the contractor will be entitled to payment for all work done to the date of receipt of notice of cancellation and to reimbursement for all additional expense, as determined by the Compensation Board, incurred by reason of such cancellation; this additional expense shall include: (1) The cost of any work directed by the Secretary of the Navy that would not have been necessary had this contract not been thus cancelled; (2) The cost of care and preservation of the Facilities, materials, and equipment prior to removal or other disposition thereof as directed by the Secretary of the Navy; (3) Any other reasonable expense including subcontractors' cancellation charges and reasonable compensation for the use of the property of the contractor occupied or required by the Facilities, materials, and equipment until final disposition thereof, as determined by the aforesaid Board.

(d) The increased compensation to which the contractor will be entitled by reason of the uspension or cancellation will be determined by the Compensation Board. As soon as practicable after the suspension or cancellation is ordered, the Board shall determine the amount to be allowed the contractor. The amounts so determined, when approved by the Secretary I the Navy, shall be the amounts to which the contractor will be entitled in full settlement of the costs of such suspension or cancellation.

(e) If there shall be an interval of time between the completion of the construction of such sels and final disposition of the Facilities, the Department shall enter into an agreement with the contractor to provide for the preservation, maintenance, and protection of the Facilities
